1. There is no indication as yet that a mutual assistance pact will be concluded between East Germany and the Soviet Union. However, it is reported that the USSR plans to give the "German Democratic Republic" a security guarantee to counter-balance the guarantee given to West Germany by the Allied foreign ministers at their meeting in New York.
2. Reports that Colonel Slavin may be expected to leave Germany before long cannot be confirmed by information available in the Foreign Ministry. Georg Dertinger has regular meetings with Slavin on Tuesdays, and met him as usual on Tuesday, 10 October 1950.
